UNIVERSITY SENIORS DEFEAT THE JUNIORS

Both Teams Make a Touchdown but Losers Miss a Goal Kick.

The senior class football loam of the university defeated the junior class team by a score of 8 to 5 Thursday afternoon in the second of the interclass contests being played on Cummings field. Both touchdowns made during the contest were secured on fluke plays that were spectacular. Just after the opening of the first half when the seniors were attempting a forward pass on the third play of the game, Hunt of the junior team intercepted the ball and then turning to the senior goal, carried it through a broken field for sixty yards and a touchdown. The juniors failed to kick goal. The senior touchdown was made near the middle of the second half. Herbst of the senior touchdown was made near the middle of the second half. Herbst of the senior touchdown was made near the middle of the second half. Herbst of the senior touchdown was made near the middle of the second half. Herbst of the senior touchdown was made near the middle of the senior team, who fumbled the ball badly, permitting it to roll within four or five yards of his goal. Havenor of the senior team, who was running up the punt, fell on the ball and then crawled the remaining five yards for a touchdown. Herbst kicked goal, making the score 6 to 5. The forward pass was used throughout the contest to good advantage by both teams.

The prize for which the classes are contesting, along with the championship, is a handsome silver trophy given by the class of 1895 to foster interclass football. The proceeds secured by these interclass games will be used to purchase sweaters for the regular "U" team. Sixteen men are to be awarded the official block "U" for their work on the football team this year. Beside making the purchase of these sweaters, the university will buy one hundred new suits to be used in the football seam on he football team this year.

OGDEN SPORTS HAVE CINCH ON FIGHT GAME

While Fred Wood has been conscientiously endeavoring to schedule a boxing contest at Lagoon, several of his would-ba friends have been no less active in trying to put a damper on the sport in Davis county in order that any proposed matches shall and must take place in Ogden. An Ogden promoter has come out openly and offered to place a wager that the authorities would stop any contest which might be scheduled at Lagoon. Wood did not hear of the matter until Thursday and today will make an investigation and see where he stands. He said that he was becoming disgusted with the game and expects to throw up his bands at any moment. From present reports. Ogden sports will endeavor to keep the game closed here in order to reap the benefits from Sail Lake "suckers" in Ogden.

Schofield Wins Fourth Heat

Schofield Wins Fourth Heat.

There were five starters in Thursday's qualifying heat of the six-day roller skating race at the Auditorium. It was the fourth heat and was witnessed by the largest crowd that has been in attendance since the contest started. Charles Schofield of Salt Lake won the heat and Walter Youngleve of Provo was second, giving Schofield a hard race for the entire thirty-two laps Morris of Ogden started out like a winner, but unfortunately fell and was out of the running.

A basketball game will be played at the Y. M. C. A next Saturday evening, when the association team meets the strong aggregation from the L. D. S. U. Two weeks ago the L. D. S. bunch defeated the B. Y. U. at Provo and last week the Y. M. C. A team defeated Provo on the home floor. On paper the L. D. S. boys look the stronger, but the association players say they will defeat Milne's burch but a street of the stronger. bunch just as they did last season

Middleweight Arrives.

Charles Williams, champion middle-weight of Wyoming arrived in the city Thursday and issued a defi to box any middleweight in the country at 188 pounds Inursuay and issued a deft to box any middleweight in the country at 158 pounds ringside. He said he would make 150 pounds for "Ruble" Smith, providing the latter would consider a match with him. Manager Buck Gwens said that he would back Williams for a reasonable side bet.

Anti-Saloon Movement Holds First Meeting at First Methodist Church.

ULTIMATE EXTIRPATION OF LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Sessions Will Continue Friday, With Many Well-Known Speakers.

The purpose and method of procedure of the Anti-Saloon League, its history and a statement of some of the work that it has done, were set out at its opening session in this city Thursday vening at the First Methodist church. Judge George F. Goodwin presided. The session was opened with prayer by the Rev. R. M. Stevenson of Westminster college and by the singing of a hymn led by the Rev. F. B. Short, paster of the First Methodist church. Frank B. Stevens delivered the address of welcome in the absence of Mayor Bransford, who had been invited, but was unable to attend. The address of the evening was given by the Rev. G. W. Young, D. D., one of the national superintendents. Rev. P. A. Simpkin of the Phillips Congregational church gave the address of welcome on behalf of the churches of the city. At the close of the session the Rev. P. A. Simpkin, Rev. W. L. Dexter of Richfield and Rev. N. S. Elderkin of Ogden were appointed a committee to undertake the organization of the league in this State. college and by the singing of a hymn this State.

this State.

City Attorney Stephens said the mayor of the city was always in hearty sympathy with any movement that made for the uplifting of the moral tone of the city. He dwelt at some length on the presperous condition of the city and the high ideals which the officials wished to upheld in the carrying on and the high ideals which the officials wished to uphold in the carrying on of the city government "Total prohibition should not be attempted," said Mr. Stephens, "but there should be some sort of local option to protect those communities where it could be enforced. The all night saloon and Sunday selling should be abolished. The laws should be enforced. There should be no pool tables, billiard tables or lunches in places where liquor is sold. It is the enforcement of the proper laws for the regulation of the liquor traffic which is needed."

Condemns Purchasers.

Mr. Simpkin said that the purchaser of liquor was just as guilty as the seller; that the poor man had just as much right to his club as the rich man had to his, and that in many cases he saloon had come to be a club to the poor man. The establishment of men's clubs all over the State was necessary, and he instanced the fact that some of the railroads had established clubs for their employees at various places along their lines.

The Rev. G. W. Young began by saying that he was born in Virginia, that he had fought with Stonewall Jackson in the Shenandoah campaign, and that he had fought with Stonewall Jackson in the Shenandoah campaign, and that he now came from the blue grass region of Kentucky. He is tall and thin, but with a piercing eye and the presence of the old-time Southern gentleman. He emphasized the fact that in the present movement there was no place for radical reformers.

place for radical reformers.
"We propose to callst in this move-ment," Mr. Young said, "the strongest and sanest men in the community. We shall go no faster than we can move public sentiment and to accomplish the necessary reforms of the liquor traffic in this State by electing to the legislature men who are pledged to enact laws which will regulate the traffic. We shall touch no question but the liquor question, because we believe in doing one thing at a time, but we shall enlist in our cause the people of all political vertices. Democratic Examines litical parties—Democratic, Republican, Socialist, Prohibitionist, or any party that there may be. All that we ask is that the men shall be filled with a sense of the right of the American citizen to have the proper laws enacted for the regulation of the liquor evil and to have those laws enforced We shall proceed slowly, and wherever we can obtain lo-cal option we shall take it, and later, when we can bring public sentiment to see the necessity of doing away with the evil entirely, we shall take that."

Review of Work. Mr. Young gave a resume of the work that had been accomplished in Ohio, in Kentucky and in Georgia. The movement was born in Oberlin, Ohio, and for thirteen years had been spreading. "The movement is the greatest achievement of the twentieth century," said Dr Young, "and will prove to be said Dr Young, "and will prove to be the solution of the greatest problem of Christian civilization."

of Christian civilization."

The audience was not large, but the organizers expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the showing at the first meeting. The Rev. Mr. Fuller, State organizer, and that often there was only a handful present at the first meeting, but that the attendance increased rapidly after the character of the movement became known that from birth life is made miserable with suffering. Others who inherit the movement became known.

The session Friday morning will begin at 9 o'clock. There will be addresses by Rev. N. S. Elderkin, W. L. Dexter, Dr. Buxton, and Rev. G. W. Mackery.

NEW WITNESSES IN LIMESTONE SUIT

The fourth day of the trial of the Union Limestone company against the United States Smelting company was devoted to the completion of Simon Bamberger's testimony on cross-examination. J. Ferson Smith was then called for the purpose of identifying the property, he having surveyed and platted the several claims for patent.

At the afternoon session, the plaintiff having closed its case, Dr. J. E. Talmage occupied the stand as a geologist and expert witness, having been introduced by the defendant. The witness said he had examined the limestone quarries in question, and in the course of his examination explained what was good lime, what bad and the regularity of the formation. He was being cross-examined when court adjourned.

Those who failed to attend the concert given by the Salt Lake Juvenile band at the Salt Lake Theater on Thursday afterthe Salt Lake Theater on Thursday afternoon and night, missed a most delightful musical treat. A charming programme was rendered at each performace. At the afternoon performance the violin solo of George Flashman, a pupil of G. E. Skelton, was rendered in a most charming manner, and was heartly encored. The mandolin solo, by Master Willie Stanford, was rendered in a splendid manner, and in response to an encore he played "Nearwas rendered in a spientid manner, and in response to an encore he played "Near-er, My God, to Thee." This latter, as did his first number, captured the audience, and they were both to allow the young man to go. The tenth number, a descriptive one, "Hunting Scene." was most delightful. Indeed, no older band could have rendered the music in a more perfect way. In responding to a greener. could have rendered the music in a more perfect way. In responding to an encore the band played "Old Black Joe." This, too, was spiendidly rendered. Then came Miss Mille Williams in a vocal solo, "Love's Old, Sweet Song." which was sung most charmingly. Miss Williams's volce, always a sweet one, appeared sweeter than usual yesterday afternoon. That her solo was appreciated was shown by the hearty appliance which followed. The concert was the first one given by by the hearty appliance which followed. The concert was the first one given by the band here, and was one that will recall unto many the famous bands which have oppeared here during the past. The manager leaves this morning for the East for the purpose of arranging a tour for the band during the coming season. He has planned a trip for the boys to the Atlantic eoast, visiting all the larger Eastern cities and giving concerts if the entertainment which the band gave in the Theater yesterday is a criterion, there is no question as to what the band will do on trip to the East. It is hoped that the boys will repeat the concerts of yesterday at an early day.

Richards and Pringle's opened an engagement at the Grand The-ater last night A packed house wel-comed the company. There are a numcomed the company. There are a number of clever people in the company. There are several stunts that are better than the average, viz., the juggling act of Pearl Mappini and the acrobatic act of Frank Kirk. The bass solo of Lemuel Ross was exceptionally well rendered. The company will appear tonight, tomorrow matinee and tomorrow night.

UNION BOILERMAKERS ORDER MEN FROM BUTTE

Five Non-Union Employees at U. P. Roundhouse Escorted Out of Town.

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 5.—A committee of fifty men, representing leading local unions, waited on five non-union boiler-makers at work in the Northern Pacific round house here, shortly after midnight, and ordered them to leave town. The men were escorted to the city limits shortly afterward. They constituted the entire local force, as the Northern Pacific union boilermakers have been on strike some weeks. There was no violence and no arrests were made.
